

Netina 2025 Privacy Policy

- By submitting the Application Documents, the Applicant consents to and agrees that the Applicant's personal data including medical data may be processed and shared in accordance with the GDPR for the following purposes:
 - in the case of emergencies, disclosed to third parties (including emergency services, aircraft assistants, medical teams and governmental or regulatory bodies in the UK and/or Thailand (e.g. UK Foreign Office or equivalent body));
 - for dealing with any legal matters which may occur (e.g. sharing information with lawyers and insurance companies);
 - for the provision of insurance cover in respect of the Programme to the insurance company either in the UK or Thailand;
 - to assess the Applicant's suitability for the Programme and the activities it entails;
 - by FZY and the Organisers in relation to medical or welfare support if required;
 - for general administration of the Programme including travel and billing for example;
 - to conduct anonymised statistical research using elements of the Applicant's data such as demographic data for the purposes of research and improving the programmes for the future;
 - in assisting the crisis management team that are on standby to deal with any issues that may arise whilst the Participant is participating in the Programme; and
 - for any other safeguarding, medical or legal issue that FZY and/or the Organisers deem to be reasonable.
- With specific regard to religious information, FZY and/or the Organisers may process and share the religious information provided by the Applicant in the Application Form for the purposes of:
 - placing the Applicant in suitable accommodation;
 - anonymised statistical research; and
 - any other social or welfare issues that FZY and/or the Organisers deem to be reasonable.
- In Accordance with the GDPR all data is stored on secure servers, and we maintain a strict access policy on a needs-only basis. FZY and the Organisers are the joint Data Owners of the data submitted for the Programme. The Organisers are the joint Data Controllers of the data submitted for the Programme. Please refer to the Data Protection Policies of FZY for additional information regarding how your data is stored.
- You have the right to request information we hold about you. If you wish to make an enquiry, please contact the Data Controller at FZY.
